

Please do NOT allow passengers to use their cell phone while flying. I am a flight attendant and I know from first hand experience that the loud talking would be very disturbing to surrounding passengers in the congested, confined space. There are NO phone calls that are so important that they can not wait to be made on the ground!